

Snapshot—Overview:

- What is unanticipated outcome disclosure?
- Why does UT System require unanticipated outcome disclosure to patients and families?
- What is the effect of disclosure on health care quality, patient relationships, claims and litigation?
- What are our predictions for the future?

“When Things Go Wrong” — Disclosure at UT System Health Institutions

Wednesday, April 15, 2015

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm CST

Click on the link below to register

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/3159770284557499906>

REGISTER NOW

Who Should Attend:

- OGC and Health Institution attorneys and risk managers
- Student Health Center Physicians and Managers
- UT System and health and academic institution offices with interest in health policy

About the Presenters

Allene Evans is the Senior Associate General Counsel and Managing Attorney, Health Law. She has more than 35 years of litigation experience in both private practice and government service with an emphasis on complex litigation, discovery management, problem solving, dispute resolution, bridge building and advocacy. Allene is AV® Preeminent rated in Health Law, Health Care Liability and Litigation.

Tim Boughal is a Senior Attorney in the Office of General Counsel where he handles a variety of claims and litigation matters in the health care arena. Mr. Boughal received his BA degree in Government from the University of Texas at Austin and his JD from South Texas College of Law. Prior to joining the Office of General Counsel Tim served as an Assistant Attorney General of Texas in the Tort Litigation Division.

For more information regarding the UT Systemwide Compliance Academy, please visit
<http://www.utsystem.edu/compliance/SWCAcademy.html>

